Fallen Down

Chapter 1 by ppom nine

I decided to climb the mountain. It seemed like a good idea at the time! Despite being told that "anyone who climbs up the mountain never returns," I just ignored it like the cut on my arm. I had a band-aid over it to keep it from bleeding. Just as I got to the top, however, I tripped and fell. I kept falling, and falling, and falling. It seemed like it would never end. Finally, I fell on a pile of leaves. Just as that happened, I started to black out...

I woke up in the same pile of leaves. Tired and dazed, I walked around. I found what looked like an entrance and decided to walk through it. Inside was a patch of grass. Upon walking up to it, a yellow flower popped out.

"Howdy!" It said, "It's me! Your best friend, Flowey the Flower!" I was confused. I didn't know any flowers. I was also confused because a FLOWER IS TALKING TO ME.

"You must be pretty confused, down here all alone. Oh well! I guess I better teach you how things work around here!" Suddenly, a red heart appeared in front of me.
